Subject: RE: Campbell v. CWS Docket No. 2015-77-WS

I did send a notice to PSC requesting that our complaint Docket No 2015-77-WS be cancelled. I was informed that it was to be cancelled. I even inquired as to whether I needed to submit my paperwork /statement, which was ready to be submitted by Mar 18. I was told that it was not necessary.

CWS had acknowledged their mistake and I see no reason to go ahead with the complaint. My initial complaint dealt with the fact that they did not notify everybody AHEAD as required.

Please verify that this has been cancelled and I will not have to appear on April 13.

Dear Mr. Butler

Although Mr. & Mrs. Campbell's Motion to Dismiss their complaint does not appear in the record I am informed that they sent a letter to the Commission on March 3, 2015 stating they wished to have their complaint dismissed; the Commission acknowledged receipt of Mr. And Mrs. Campbell's request which does not appear on the docket management system site. I would respectfully request that all pre-filing deadlines scheduled in this matter be stayed pending the Public Service Commission's decision on dismissing Mr. And Mrs. Campbell's complaint. I note that pre-filing deadlines for Thursday, March 12, 2015. I am informed by Jeff Nelson, general counsel for The Office of Regulatory Staff that he consents to this request to stay all pre-filing deadlines. Please let me know if you have questions.

Ms. Campbell,

Your request for cancellation has been posted to our DMS. However, the Commission has to rule on the request for cancellation. So the official cancellation will not be posted for a few weeks.

Ms. Alvarez,

Please cancel my hearing for Docket No 2015- 77-WS.

The ORS has resolved this issue as of March 2 to my satisfaction.

Please let me know that this hearing has been cancelled. A return email would be fine unless it must be done through legal / mail channels.
